EFFORT IS MADE TO CLEAR WAY FOR DAM CONSTRUCTION

Claremont Leaders Seeking to Counteract "Opposition" Here

While construction of the proposed dam in San Antonio canyon may be temporarily delayed by action of federal officials, a new movement is under way in Claremont today to get work started on the project.

Political pressure by San Bernardino county interests was credited by Claremont officials with causing federal authorities to order all phases of the project postponed.

Ralph J. Shoemaker, Claremont engineer, asked the Claremont city council last week "to consider for immediate action the problem of how to obtain support for the San Antonio canyon project, which has been delayed indefinitely by political pressure brought in Washington by San Bernardino county opponents."

Councilmen Ross Daves and George S. Sumner are reported to be preparing to "take over the responsibility of securing cooperation from the city of Pomona, Congressman Jerry Voorhis and other county flood control officials to start a movement to counteract the pressure brought by San Bernardino county in order to release the stop order upon army engineers."

A congressional appropriation of approximately $700,000 to begin the work will be diverted to other U. S. army engineering projects unless authorities in Washington are advised immediately "of the serious need for the flood control protection," Mr. Shoemaker told the Claremont councilmen.

Legislators Give Many New Laws to State, Says Critic

BY RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California

Prior to the time it convened, the 1939 state legislature was expected to be more liberal and more friendly to the worker's cause than any other legislature in many years—yet it ended up by cracking down on labor (or at least labor's leaders) and refused to pass every bill of major importance that these leaders demanded.

Labor czars, who brook no interference and refuse to recognize the swing of the pendelum of public opinion, will doubtless charge that the legislators "sold out." For that is the customary alibi of the hard-boiled lobbyist who comes to Sacramento, wielding "the big stick," and then fails to deliver.

But the workers who pay the dues that support labor chieftans and pay their dollars into strike benefit funds, lobbying funds and the various other funds that are financial support of labor's wars, need to take a critical look at the situation.

EXCESSES DEFEATED THEM

As a plain matter of fact—and any legislator who speaks frankly and without prejudice will admit it—labor was beaten at the 1939 session of the legislature by labor excesses. It was beaten, in part, by indignant public opinion, aroused by constant strife and bickering between labor and employers and within labor's own ranks. And it was beaten, so far as immediate considerations were concerned, by the unfairness of its demands—by the unyielding attitude of many of its leaders who apparently assumed that legislators would be compelled to give them anything they demanded, irrespective of the rights and wishes of other voting citizens in their districts.

Consider the record:

The legislature defeated proposals to legalize the closed shop; it rejected secondary boycotts; it refused to approve union hiring halls. It defeated the wages and hours by law. It turned thumbs minimum wages and maximum hours by lawk. It turned thumbs down on bills which would have

One Beauty Among Flowers

Esther Ann Walker, Ontario beauty, a Chaffey junior college student, who is a popular contestant at all current bathing beauty events, is pictured among a collection of zinnias. The flowers were picked from the floral display on the grounds of the Los Angeles county fair. A million zinnia plants, 15,000 petunia plants and thousands of flowering vines and shrubs will supply beautiful colors during next month's fair.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN TO HEAR SPEAKERS

Leaders in Political Circles To Speak at Meeting Here Wednesday

Two outstanding speakers are to be presented at the meeting of the Republican Women's club to be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, according to the announcement made today by the president, Mrs. Warren H. Wass.

The scheduled speaker, Miss Geraldine Hadsell of Los Angeles, head of the speakers bureau and vice-president of the Young Republicans club of Southern California, will be accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Buchanan, president of the Republican Women's club of Los Angeles county, and both will appear on the program.

These two public spirited women are well informed on the questions to be discussed and both are fluent speakers. Anyone interested, whether members of the club or not, will be cordially welcomed.

Mrs. Wass especially desires a large attendance at this meeting, because her ability to secure such outstanding speakers is measured by the attendance and the interest shown in the meetings.

ROAD DISTRICTS AIDED BY $25,000

Supervisors Relieve Property Owners Who Made Improvements Years Ago

Sum of $25,000 was appropriated yesterday by the county supervisors for the county's road improvement district funds, majority of which will be used in benefiting Cucamonga and Alta Loma residents. This is an annual appropriation made to relieve property owners who years ago obligated themselves to improve roads.

These roads were improved before the state collected gasoline tax for that purpose. These roads have now been included in the county highway system.

Appropriation of the money was voted immediately after the county's budget was formally adopted. Estimated expenditures in the budget are $2,716,451.63. The proposed tax rate is $1.55.

Guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Barr, 40 F street, were Mrs. H. M. Le Claire of Beverly Hills, sister of Mrs. Barr, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gray and small daughter Patricia of Los Angeles. Mrs. Gray is the daughter of Mrs. Barr.

The Ontario office was also included in the previous report of the service being curtailed. For the time being, however, the license service will be continued there.

DR. HILL CHOSEN TO DEDICATE NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

First Principal in Tenth Street School Will Be Here Sept. 19

Dr. Merton E. Hill, the first principal in Upland's first elementary school building, will return to Upland Sept. 19 and deliver the dedicatory address in Upland's new ultra-modern school building.

While other features will be on the impressive program, Dr. Hill's address will be the principal event, according to Harold W. Cook, school superintendent.

In Sept., 1911, Dr. Hill became principal of Chaffey high school, after having served in the "new" Tenth street school—the structure now being razed.

In planning for the opening program, the Upland board of educatio selected Dr. Hill as the person best capable and the most logical one to dedicate the new structure.

An opportunity will be given the general public to inspect the new structure.

WATER PROJECTS TO COST $29,000

Zone No. 1 in Flood Control District Will Have 10-Cent Tax Levy

Flood control and water conservation projects in the West End of the county will cost $29,000 during the fiscal year and property owners will pay a tax rate of 10 cents for each $100 valuation, according to action taken by the county supervisors.

Budget of each flood control district was set yesterday.

Construction of a storm drain on Eighth street from Cucamonga wash to Euclid avenue is part of the work being financed by the tax levy.

This district is designated as zone No. 1. The county has been divided into six zones and for each a budget was adopted by the supervisors.

In each district is an advisory committee and the supervisors based the budget on recommendation of the committees.

M. Smith, 341 Euclid avenue. Louis and Don Smith are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith.

People Next Door--

Mrs. Mary Boone Lives Closer to Ontario Than Any Other Uplander

Mrs. Mary E. Boone lives closer to Ontario than any other Upland resident.

For 33 years she has resided at what is now known as 462 South Euclid avenue.

"While I didn't vote for this area to become a part of Upland, if the city will improve the Euclid parkway I will feel all right about the matter," Mrs. Boone said today. Her 20 acre citrus grove adjoins the Ontario city limits.

Mrs. Boone likes moving picture shows, likes to mingle among people and "likes to do just what she wants to do around the home." She lives alone.

"I used to hitch up a horse or a team to the buggy and go places, but I never learned to drive a car," explained the Uplander, who has reared a family and who is acquainted with many people in Ontario and Upland.

"The boys come back to see me quite often," the mother explained. But she is seldom lonesome. "I read quite a bit, sometimes I listen to the radio, and then if I don't want to do anything I just don't."

Mr. and Mrs. Boone came to Upland from Los Angeles, they having arrived in Southern California in 1885. An opportunity to trade their Los Angeles grocery store for a 10-acre grove led them to this district. Within a short time after moving to Ontario they purchased the 20 acres on Euclid avenue. Mr. Boone passed on about six years ago.

Bomb Explosion Narrowly Misses Francis Line As Family Departs For Home

Perhaps if Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Line and children had not left a train in England just at the time they did, the family might not have arrived home, it was revealed today.

The travelers are back, returning to their home in Ontario Sunday night. For five and a half months they traveled in the out-of-the-way sections of northern Europe. Their children were in the southern part of England during most of these jaunts.

JUST MISS BOMB

"Just before leaving London, Mrs. Line and I went to get the children," the versatile traveler, lecturer and writer recounted yesterday. "Our train returned to London on platform 15 of Victoria station. We looked up at the large station clock and noted the time, 8:05 p. m. A few minutes after that time platform 15 was wrecked by a bomb. The train we had just left was shattered and the large station clock demolished. The bombing, many of which have taken place in London recently, was the work of the Irish Republican organization, which is believed to have German backing."

IN HITLER'S ROOM

In returning from Scandinavia to England last month, the Lines traveled through Germany and slept two nights in a Hamburg hotel in the same room which Hitler occupied frequently before his rise to dictatorship.

"Germany, too, is tense," Mr. Line observed. "We saw thousands of little boys and girls marching in military processions. The people seem to have plenty of certain kinds of food but other kinds are scarce and are being rationed out. Apparently great quantities of food supplies are being stored against an emergency."

Closely followed by many Uplanders have been Mr. Lines' highly descriptive and interest articles in The Upland News. The travelers obtained many pictures. The colored motion pictures which they made in Finland aroused considerable interest there and representatives of a number of Finnish organizations, including the University of Helsingfors, have requested the Lines to return to Finland next year to show their movie at the time of the 1940 Olympiad.

MOST BEAUTIFUL TRIP

After their summer trip to Lapland, the Lines traveled through Southern Norway. They declared the journey from Bergen to Oslo to be the most beautiful of the entire trip. They also traveled extensively in Denmark and spent a week in Copenhagen.

Mr. Line has made three full-length colored motion pictures, one on Finland, one on Lapland in summer and winter, and a third on Holland. The Holland film is for children and features Barbara and Adrienne Line, who traveled to that land with their parents.

After editing the films, Mr. Line plans to engage in lecture work in California and in eastern United States. The first showings of the films in this district are scheduled for early in October.

Until Mr. and Mrs. Line's home at 542 Rosewood court is ready for occupancy Sept. 1, they are staying at 525 East Fourth street.

MACKAY SUED FOR $15,000 IN CRASH

William Mahar Seeks Damages Resulting From Foothill Crash

As an aftermath of an automobile accident on Foothill boulevard Oct. 20, 1938, a damage suit is on file today in the superior court.

Plaintiff in the action is William C. Mahar, who alleged he suffered injuries when his machine and one driven by W. A. MacKay figured in the crash. Damages totaling $15,000 are sought. Mr. Mahar stated he suffered concussion of the brain, other head injuries, lacerations over the body, a fractured left shoulder, four broken ribs and severe shock.

LABOR NEEDS OF COUNTY ANALYZED

Greatest Need for Workers Reported To Be During April

"Agricultural Activities—Crops and Labor" is the title of a condensed brochure issued by the Department of Employment and Unemployment Reserves commission, a copy of which was received yesterday by the Upland chamber of commerce, where it is available for reference purposes by anyone interested.

The mimeographed booklet contains a wealth of information regarding the harvest periods in the state and invaluable information to growers and others regarding seasonal crops and labor supply in the different counties of the state.

In San Bernardino county, the principal crops are shown to be: Citrus, 47,000 acres; grapes, 26,988 acres; walnuts, 8,500 acres, with maximum labor demands in April.

THRIP INCREASE IS THREAT TO GROWER

Control for Thrips and Red Spider Needed in District

Great increase in thrips and red spider causes Calvin C. Delphey, supervising agricultural inspector, to warn growers that care must be exercised to avoid damage of fruit.

"In the past ten days, there has been rapid increase in thrips," says the inspector. Growers who wish advice on the control of thrips or red spider may call the office, located at 230 East Ninth street, and request either Mr. Delphey or Harry V. Cavers to make an inspection.

Sulphur dusting for these two pests is the most commonly used method of control. However, some spraying is being done. Thrips are bad all through the lemon district, Mr. Delphey says.

Spraying for black scale has begun in the southern part of the district. Infestation of red scale, however, is much less than a year ago. Spraying for red scale will not start until October 1, he estimates.

Neon Sign on Euclid Will Be Placed Soon

The Ontario chamber of commerce is making plans to immediately place the neon sign.

PRO-RATE CHANGE ON LEMONS TO BE DISCUSSED IN L. A.

Lemon Growers Will Meet on August 31 To Decide Policy

A meeting of vital interest to all lemon growers, according to managers of local citrus associations, is that scheduled for August 31, when methods of changing the pro-rating of lemons will be discussed. The meeting is to be held at 10 a. m. in the state office building in Los Angeles, and all lemon growers are being notified. Agricultural pro-rate committee is calling the meeting.

Packing house managers stated that they hoped a large representation of lemon growers from this section would attend.

Speaker Says Half Railroad Mileage of Entire World in U.S.

When Fred Beaman of Los Angeles, foreign freight agent for the Santa Fe railroad, addressed members of Upland Rotary club at their meeting at Red Hill Country club today noon, he related some of the troubles of the large industry he represents.

Mr. Beaman, in noting the first railroads built in the United States, told of their increased importance as time has passed. There are about 240,000 miles of railroad in this country, he stated, which is about half the railroad mileage of the entire world. The speaker told of the great development in railroad transportation during recent years, giving credit to the automobile for spurring them on. He looks upon the Diesel engine as the engine of the future, not only because of the cheap fuel it uses but also because it is easier on the tracks.

According to Mr. Beaman, an investment of about $7,000 is the average cost per man employed in this nation, whereas with the Santa Fe it is approximately $25,000 per man. Average wage on the Santa Fe is $1,850 per year, he stated. In California the Santa Fe pays about $2,000,000 a year in taxes and in the country at large $14,000,000. Mr. Beaman mentioned a number of haidicaps placed upon the railroads by various laws now existing—and closed his interesting address by noting that the railroads are an important link in our national defense.

W. F. Rugg was program chairman and presented the speaker. Owen Atwood, club president, presided over the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hirschler, Hellman avenue, Cucamonga, are the parents of a son, born Saturday at the San Antonio Community hospital.

F. H. Manker, who submitted to an operation at San Antonio Community hospital last Wednesday, is suffering a slight setback today, but it is not thought to be serious. He had been progressing satisfactorily until this morning.

Jack Atwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Atwood, 449 Ninth avenue, left yesterday for Berkeley to enter his senior year in the college of commerce at the University of California. He went north with another student from Escondido.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Musser, 390 Euclid avenue, returned Wednesday from a week and a half spent in Northern California. First they went to San Francisco and spent several days there. Mrs. Musser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wenger, 481 First avenue, joined them on Monday and Tuesday, and they saw the fair together. The Wengers returned to Upland Wednesday, but Mr. and Mrs. Musser continued their trip to Yosemite. Finding Yosemite dry and hot, they did not remain there as long as they had originally intended, but went on to Lake Tahoe. Friday and Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Musser went to Victorville to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clair Dexter.

The Republican Choice?

Those who are interested in politics—and that broad classification must take in about 99 per cent of the population—are giving a good deal of thought to whom the Republicans will pick to run for the Presidency. That is a much more important question now than it was in 1936—no expert gave the GOP a chance to win then, but most of the experts think it has a fair chance now, if it can produce a pleasing candidate and platform.

At the moment, going by recent polls, Tom Dewey, racket-buster extraordinary, is far in the lead—some 45 per cent of the Republicans queried by the Institute favor him. Vandenberg and Taft are running second and third. Then, far down the list on a percentage basis, come Hoover, Landon and Borah.

Interesting point is a strong increase in support for Vandenberg. Obvious reason for that are his victories in the last Congress. He led the successful fight against amending the Neutrality Act, and was a big factor in beating the Florida ship canal project. And he has long advocated denunciation of the 1911 U. S.-Japanese trade treaty—a step taken by the State Department a few weeks ago. He was also much in the public eye because of his activity in support of various amendments to the social security act.

Of course, public support doesn't necessarily assure a candidate's nomination. Both parties are still dominated by political machines which think much of their power and perpetuation and little of public desires. The machines aren't so powerful as in the twenties, when dying Boies Penrose had no difficulty in forcing the Republicans to nominate obscure Senator Harding, but they still control a lot of jobs and they are a force to be reckoned with. However, if a candidate for either party's nomination is able to enlist enough public enthusiasm the machines don't like to take the risk of fighting him.

It's Part of Politics

Ability of C. E. Grier might be recognized by the current state administration if he were a Democrat. Gov. Culbert L. Olson needs a good, capable public servant for the position of state finance director. The chairman of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors has time and again demonstrated his ability as a real public servant and one well versed in managing public funds. He is capable of being governor himself.

But as to his possible appointment as state finance director—as has been suggested—Mr. Grier is registered as a Republican. For that reason it is too much to expect that Governor Olson, a Democrat, will appoint Mr. Grier to the position recently vacated by Phil Gibson.

So long as party lines must be recognized even in state government, a Democratic governor would not be keeping faith with his loyal party leaders should he appoint a Republican.

The average voter finds it difficult to tell the difference, if any, between the Republican and Democratic parties in national affairs. More and more political parties are meaning less and less. In state affairs, party lines really mean nothing to the average voter.

Nevertheless, Governor Olson was elected as a Democrat and up and down the state are many so-called Democrat party leaders who would rebel if a Republican were placed in a key position in state affairs.

It is too bad Mr. Grier isn't in one of the major state offices. While he is needed in this county, yet the entire state would profit if all Californians shared in his administrative ability.

Our Voice in Local Taxes

Upland city hall is to Uplanders what the White House and the capitol buildings are to the nation. Right here at home we have a governmental center. While we pay a huge sum in "hidden" taxes and other taxes to the state and federal governments, one of our biggest and most direct tax bills comes from our local government.

All of us are in a position to follow Upland governmental affairs—and we should do it. Nearly a dozen persons looked in on the Upland city council at Thursday night's meeting. At least two persons were there just to see what was going on—the others had some request to make.

It is good for everyone to be interested in his home town. Local people can have a voice in how local tax money is expended. The council meets again Sept. 7.

Golden Wedding Day Celebrated by Mr. And Mrs. Denny

A happy event, to which Mr. and Mrs. David S. Denny had looked forward with a great deal of pleasure, occurred Friday evening, Aug. 18, when they celebrated their golden wedding day at their home, 1075 Washington boulevard.

In the afternoon informal open house was held and a number of friends called, but the principal feature of the celebration was the reception held in the evening from 7 to 11 o'clock, with 60 guests participating.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, gold and white gladioli being the flowers used in artistic arrangement, complemented with gold colored candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny received a number of beautiful gifts, among them being a gold wedding ring for the bride of 50 years ago and a gold watch chain for Mr. Denny, both gifts from the Upland guests, and two handsomely bound Bibles, gifts from their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Horsch of Campus avenue.

The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Denny, Mrs. Horsch and Miss Noble Denny, served as hostesses, receiving and entertaining the guests.

During the evening a mock wedding was held and at intervals numbers of a musical program were given. Among the very appropriate selections sung were "I Love You Truly", "Golden Wedding Day", "Silver Threads Among the Gold", "When I Grow Too Old to Dream", and "End of a Perfect Day."

The serving of refreshments was one of the special events of the evening. Several pretty girls, wearing gold colored dresses, made with long, full skirts and tight fitting bodices, served ice cream, moulded as gold and white wedding bells, and gold and white cakes. The girls were the Misses Eloise Triplett, Patsy and Elizabeth Carter and Jeannine Carter, all of Upland, and the Misses Joye Sloan, Cleo Sloan, Ila Fae Croney and Priscilla Sloan, all of Orange. White and gold souvenir cards bearing snapshots of Mr. and Mrs. Denny were distributed as favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny were married in Wing, Ark., 50 years ago and later they made their home in Oklahoma, engaging in farming. Several years ago they came to Upland to live and during their residence here they have won many friends.

Besides their two daughters in Upland, Mr. and Mrs. Denny have two sons, Bert and Elmo Denny, both of Creswell, Ore.

New Faculty Member Takes Bride in Van Nuys

Mr. and Mrs. Dean William Lewis are living at 68 East Arrow highway, their marriage having been solemnized in Van Nuys Sunday noon at the Central Lutheran church, following the regular church service. The bridegroom is a new member of the faculty at Upland junior high school, coming here to teach social science.

The bride before her marriage was Miss Ruth Athlyn Anderson. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Van Nuys. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Lewis of Santa Monica.

Officiating at the wedding was the bride's father, pastor of the Central Lutheran church. Members of the congregation and many out-of-town friends witnessed the ceremony. For the occasion the church was beautifully decorated with white flowers.

Bride's gown was of white satin, made floor length and completed with a bolero jacket. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white sweet peas.

Brothers In Upland Family Claim Brides On Same Day

Dr. John W. Mehl and Miss Dexter Take Marriage Vows

Selecting the home of the bridegroom's grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Mehl, at 636 East Ninth street, as the scene of their informal wedding, Dr. John W. Mehl of Cambridge, Mass., elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Mehl, and Miss Frances Dexter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dexter, 1412 East First street, Long Beach, were united in marriage at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, Aug. 20.

The single ring marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Mehl in the presence of about 15 members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. W. E. Sheller of Long Beach, was attired in a navy blue and white ensemble and carried a colonial bouquet of white rosebuds, carnations and lilies-of-the valley.

The bridegroom was attended by his younger brother, Rodney C. Mehl, whose own marriage occurred only a few hours later.

For the occasion the home was attractively decorated with choice flowers from the grandparents' own garden, several baskets of beautiful blossoms being placed throughout the rooms.

Dr. Mehl, a native of Upland, attended the local schools and graduated from Chaffey high school. He also graduated from the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena and later he received his master's degree and his Ph. D. degree from the University of California at Berkeley.

For three years Dr. Mehl has been a member of the faculty of Harvard university at Cambridge, teaching bio-chemistry.

For the past year the accomplished bride has been dancing and recreation instructor at the Long Beach Y. W. C. A.

Following a dinner served in the late afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Mehl at their home at 170 East C street in honor of their sons and their two new daughters-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Mehl left for Cambridge, Mass., where they will reside.

Intimate friends attending the wedding and the dinner at the Mehl home were Dr. Emory Ellis, former classmate of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Ellis of San Gabriel.

Rodney Mehl Claims Pauline Peters as Bride Sunday

Miss Pauline Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Peters of East D street, Ontario, and Rodney C. Mehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Mehl of Upland, were united in marriage at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Aug. 20, the wedding occurring at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Peters on Sixth avenue, Ontario.

Baskets of flowers in pastel shades were used in artistic arrangement throughout the home, providing a charming setting for the nuptial event.

Lynn Peters at the piano played "I Love You Truly," and the bridal party entered the room to the strains of the wedding march, "The Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's "Lohengrin," played by Mr. Peters. The single ring ceremony was performed by the bride groom's grandfather, the Rev. J. C. Mehl of Upland.

For the wedding the bride wore an afternoon gown in slate blue shade with white accessories and her shower bouquet was composed of white sweet peas and maidenhair fern.

Her attendant was Miss Challis Baker of Ontario and the bridegroom was attended by his brother, Dr. John W. Mehl, of Cambridge, Mass., whose marriage had occurred a few hours earlier.

Members of the immediate families and several intimate friends witnessed the marriage and attended the informal reception that followed the ceremony.

The beautiful wedding cake that graced a smartly appointed table was cut by the bride and formed part of the refreshments served to the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Peters.

The bride is a graduate of Chaffey high school and did special work in Chaffey junior collegt. Mr. Mehl, a native of Upland, attended the local schools and graduated from both Chaffey high school and junior college. He is entering the University of California at Berkeley as a member of the junior class and will major in chemistry.

Builders Class Holds Interesting Party At Stone Home

Meeting in the attractive rear garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tweed Stone, 329 East Ninth street, members of the Builders class of the Presbyterian church enjoyed an especially interesting social gathering Friday evening.

Using the outdoor grill that is a part of the garden picnic equipment, the group roasted wieners and enjoyed a picnic supper.

Later in the evening Mrs. Stone, the class president, conducted a business session during which several matters were given attention.

For the entertainment feature of the evening Mr. Stone told of recent visits to several old missions, where he talked with the padres and was given permission to take a number of pictures. He also gave an interesting history of the early California missions and related numerous facts as told to him by the padres.

Mr. Stone's talk, replete with bits of human interest stories concerning the padres and their work, provided a very enjoyable hour for his audience.

Mrs. Stone, serving without a committee, made arrangements for the meeting and presided as hostess for the evening.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Hendricks and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bridenbaugh of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cline and daughters, Juanita and Bessie Bell, and their cousin, Frank Kropp of Ontario; Mrs. Delbert Duncan and two children, Harold Wilson and son, Verne; Mrs. Bonita Weiler, Mrs. J. What a sight greeted the eyes of persons on the 19th street pier at Newport on Sunday when the live bait boats came in. Fish and more fish! The first boat in was the Tillicum with 48 albacore besides bass and barracuda, then came the Flyer, and while it did not have any albacore it made up for it with the catch of white sea bass, no less than 117 of these beauties being on board for the day's catch. While pictures were still being taken of this large catch—the largest catch of white sea bass ever brought into Newport, say old-timers—the Sirio came in and added its quota of albacore. Altogether three boats brought in 98 albacore. The big school was located opposite San Clemente and is working up the coast, so fishing should be good the remainder of this week.

Traffic Questions Answered Here

Where can I have my lights adjusted and receive a certificate of that effort on my part to drive with legal lights? C.F.M.

A—At any Official Station in the state. Such generally have a sign outside their place of business or placed in a conspicuous spot inside. These stations are inspected as to equipment and as to the knowledge the adjusters have of the legal requirements only.

Q—Has the Vehicle Code been changed permitting any vehicle to carry a tire on the front of the car?

A—There has been no change respecting this. A spare tire may only be carried on the front of a commercial vehicle when such tire is securely mounted in a tire carrier firmly attached to the vehicle.

Q—Can an intoxicated person upon the highways be arrested for a violation of the California Vehicle Code?

A—Section 565 of the Code on and after Sept. 19, 1939, provides it to be unlawful for a pedestrian who is intoxicated to such an extent as to create a hazard to himself or others to walk or be upon any highway.

Q—There is much discussion among our Parent Teachers division concerning the question whether a 14-year-old boy or girl may secure an operator's license to drive a car. Please enlighten us upon this point.

A—Such a privilege is possible if the Department is satisfied on reasonable proof that there is an actual and real necessity for the operation of a motor vehicle by such person for the purpose of transportation to and from school, or for the welfare of the applicant or his family. Restrictions may also be imposed in addition to limiting the minor operating a vehicle within the scope of necessity as shown as the Department may deem necessary to assure the safe operation of a motor vehicle by the licensee.

Q—When I come to a through highway outside of a city and there is a stop sign, just where must I stop my vehicle? I am puzzled to know as so many signs are placed at a point before the main highway is reached. I think to stop opposite too many of those signs is dangerous because it does not give me a clear enough view of the through highway traffic.

A—You should stop your vehicle before entering the nearest crosswalk or, if none, then at a limit line when marked, otherwise before entering such highway or intersection. Conditions govern and a specific rule cannot be laid down because conditions are so different at various intersections.

ETIWANDA TIES UP SERIES WITH 12-INNING VICTORY

4 to 3 Game Last Night Is Thriller—Teams Meet in Ontario Wednesday

It took 12 innings to do the trick, but Etiwanda evened up the title series with Hotpoint last night, the score being 4 to 3. Two game apiece have been won by the teams in the seven-game series for the American league championship.

Hotpoint was coasting easily with a 3-run lead all through the game up until last half of the ninth. A determined bunch of batters rallied, four hits and a Hotpoint error accounting for the tying runs. On into the twelfth the tight game went and it might have gone much longer except for a sizzling line drive by Leon Utman. Francis Johnson was on base and as he crossed the plate the two fighting teams became deadlocked in the series.

On the Fourth street diamond the teams will carry on their series tomorrow night.

Etiwanda will be host to their foes Friday night.

EFFORTS OF LAW MAKERS REVIEWED

Observer of State Affairs Gives Summary of New Statutes

established unfair labor pracitces for employers, but which failed to establish similar unfair practices for workers. It tabled proposals to set up labor mediation and arbitration acts which were so drafted as to give control to labor bosses, with little or no voice for employers.

THE REASON

Why?

In most instances, the answer is apparent on the face of the legislation. Labor simply tried to do what it has accused business of trying to do in times past; it tried to take the bit in its teeth and ride rough shod, without regard to the rights of others. And neither business nor labor can get away with that selfish policy for any considerable length of time; the American people believe in fair play—and ultimately they always demand it.

Chickens came home to roost in one spectacular instance, insofar as the hard-boiled type of labor leader is concerned, which points the finger at exactly what was wrong with labor at the legislature—and why it went home empty-handed!

Some years ago, labor leaders demanded—and secured — enactment of Sections 921-23 of the Labor code, outlawing so-called "yellow dog" contracts. In effect, these sections prohibited any employer from making employment in his firm or industry contingent on NOT belonging to a labor union, or from requiring any worker to sign a contract agreeing not to join a union.

That was a good law at the time it was enacted—as the labor leaders viewed it. But recently the courts, in interpreting these sections, ruled that they worked both ways—that employers were also prohibited from signing closed shop contracts and thereby agreeing to employ only union men. In other words, non-union men could not be prohibited from seeking employment in any business or industry, and no employer could agree not to hire them.

CLEANING IS NEEDED

At this session of the legislature, labor leaders fought bitterly to repeal or amend the same sections which they originally proposed and passed — demanding that the right of the closed shop be upheld, although they refused to recognize the right of non-union workers to a non-union shop.

It was that attitude and that type of policy that brought defeat to labor bills at the 1939 session of the legislature, coupled with labor excesses of the past few years. And the workers who pay the freight—in dues to their unions—are the only ones who can change the attitude toward labor at Sacramento. Labor needs to cleanse its own stables!
